THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From MONDAY June 14, to MONDAY June 21, 1742.

VIENNA, February 21.

THE People of Moravia and Sileſia, worn out with re iterated Acts of Oppreſſion, have taken up Arms againſt the Pruſſians, and have been join'd by vaſt Numbers of Bohemians; ſo that with the Aſſiſtance of a new Regiment of regular Troops it is more than probable they will be able to deliver themſelves from their tyrannical Maſters

From the Head Quarters of the Auſtrian Army, at Landſhut, February 16 About Eight o'Clock this Evening we received the unexpected News, that the ſtrong Caſtle of Ranhofen had ſurrender'd, and that the 700 Men which were in Garriſon there had been made Priſoners of War. We find every where a vaſt Abundance of Proviſions, Arms, new Regimentals, Boots, Saddles, and all ſorts of Warlike Stores, and, contrary to what had been reported, moſt of the Inhabitants in very good Circumſtances. This Day 600 Huſſars of Prince Eſterhaſi's new Regiment paſſed here in their Way to Moravia, where the other 600 will follow them in two Days The Primate will, if Health permits, mount on Horſeback at the Head of a Body of 10 or 12,000 Hungarians, to oppoſe the Pruſſians and Saxons, while another Body is near Jablunka, to make a Diverſion in Sileſia.

Munich, February 23 The Contributions which the Auſtrians have raiſed and continue to raiſe in this Country, are ſo very conſiderable, that their General has thought fit to make every private Man a Partner in the Profits of the Expedition. Beſides his Ammunition every Soldier receives ſeven Creutzers a Day and a Glaſs of Brandy, and the Peaſant upon whom he is quarter'd is obliged to give three Creutzers more; but then they obſerve a very Diſcipline, the Hungarians and Croatians only excepted. The Effects of the Count de Torring have been tax'd at 350,000 Florins, and Col. Mentzel ſeiz'd all his Baggage, and his fine Service of Silver Plate, in order to ſerve at an Entertainment he gave the Magiſtrates of Braunau. There happen'd ſomething ſo whimſical at this Dinner that it deſerves to be mention'd. Towards the Cloſe of it, the Auſtrian Colonel roſe abruptly, told the Magiſtrates there was Wine enough, deſired them to be merry and divert themſelves for five or ſix Hours, and by that Time he ſhould have perform'd ſomething worth their Hearing. Accordingly before they roſe he return'd and brought ſix Culverins, and a good Number of Priſoners, to vouch his having defeated a conſiderable Party of the Bavarians. His taking theſe Pieces of Cannon was the more lucky, on Account of the Auſtrians having left their Artillery at Lintz.

Vienna, February 24 The 22d Inſtant the Court received here two Expreſſes, one from Count Khevenhuller, and the other from Italy. The firſt brings Advice that the Body of Troops which marched from Tyrol into Bavaria, have made themſelves Maſters of Roſenheim and ſeveral other Places, and are marching with all poſſible Diligence to join Count Khevenhuller's Army. It is ſaid here that the Court is to eſtabliſh his Head Quarters at Munich.

The Court has given Orders for forming a Camp near Crems, and bringing back 10,000 Men from Bavaria, to oppoſe the Pruſſians on the Frontiers of the Lower Auſtria.

Frankfort, March 4. Letters from Olmutz bring Advice that the Saxon Troops have inveſted the Town of Brinn in Moravia, and that the King of Pruſſia is arriv'd with his Army before Znaim.

Ratiſbon, March 1. The Auſtrian General Count Palfi has kept his Word in protecting this City, ſo that we have not ſuffered in the leaſt from the Auſtrian Huſſars, who are certainly the moſt enterprizing Fellows in the World. A Gentleman who arrived here lately informs us, that they made a ſhift to ſteal General Sack and two or three other Perſons of Diſtinction, in the laſt March made by the King of Pruſſia, tho' they were very near his Perſon.

Conſtantinople, January 23 Reports vary again about the State of Things in Perſia; it is now much doubted if the Ottoman Ambaſſador has had his Audience of the Cha, whoſe real Deſigns ſeem ſtill very uncertain: He is ſaid to be ſomewhere about Tabreez The Tunis Rovers incommode greatly the French Navigation in theſe Seas, and have taken Veſſels in the Ports of the Morea and Archipelago One of them, after having done a great deal of Miſchief, ſhut up ſeveral Veſſels in the Port of Scio It is ſaid, that upon Application to the Porte, a Frigate is departing to order them to quit theſe Seas.

Vienna, February 28 There is no other News from Bavaria, except that Count Khevenhuller has made a Detachment of Four Regiments of Foot and Two of Horſe, to reinforce Prince Charles and Prince Lobkowitz, in order to enable them to put a Stop to the King of Pruſſia's Progreſs in Moravia and Lower Auſtria. M Polaſtron, with the 3000 French under his Command, is retired out of Moravia to join Marſhal Broglio. This Court has now in its Service, of the Hungarian Inſurrection, ſix Regiments of Infantry, amounting to 18,000 Men, Four of Cavalry 4000, Portaliſts 2000, Nobility 10 000, Three old Regiments of Hungarians 9000, Eight Regiments of Huſſars 8000, Croats of Waradin 8000, ditto of Carlſtadt 9000, Sclavonians 3000, Pandours, Raſcians, &c. 3000, in all 74,000

Dreſden, March 7. There is Advice that a Pruſſian Regiment has been cut to Pieces by the Huſſars in Upper Sileſia, where the Inhabitants of the Krapach Mountains, who live in thoſe Frontiers by running of Salt, have, on obtaining an Amneſty from the Court of Vienna, formed a Corps of 5 or 6000 Men for the Service of the Houſe of Auſtria.

Paris, March 9 The Troops for Bavaria have already paſs'd the Rhine, and have Orders to repair thither with all poſſible Diligence, where they are to be reinforced by the Palatines, and ſome Regiments of the Princes and States of the Empire, which the Emperor has taken into Pay.

Vienna, March 3. By the laſt Letters the Court has receiv'd from M. Penckler, our Reſident at Conſtantinople, we find that the Porte has no Inclination to diſturb her Majeſty in Hungary.

CHARLES-TOWN, June 21.

Wedneſday laſt arrived from Port-Royal, two Schooners, who were chas'd the Day before about 1 in the Afternoon, over North Ediſto Bar, by a ſmall taunt rigged black Schooner with new Sails, which endeavour'd to cut them off from the Land.

Reports having been ſpread in moſt Parts of the Country, that the Small Pox and other epidemical Diſtempers now rage in this Town, we think it proper to inform thoſe Perſons who raiſed them, that the ſame are entirely groundleſs and without Foundation, and therefore deſerve no Credit.

Thurſday Afternoon arrived here the Wilmington, Capt. James Howell, from Frederica, with an Expreſs from General Oglethorpe, to Capt. Charles Hardy, Commodore of His Ships on this Station; which Expreſs Capt. Howell informs us, was to requeſt him to order ſuch Men of War as were here, to ſail on a Cruiſe as far as St. Auguſtine Bar, for that there were two large Spaniſh 20-Gun Ships (Men of War) beſides two very large Privateers, one a Sloop, the other a fine Schooner mounting 18 Carriage Guns, and a great Number of ſmall Veſſels and Craft, well arm'd, laying at Anchor off that Place, which were probably on ſome important Expedition. This News was brought to General Oglethorpe at Frederica, on the 10th Inſtant, by his Guard Schooner the Ranger, commanded by Capt. Matthew Higginbotham, which had been on a Cruiſe near St. Auguſtine, and was from thence chas'd quite to Frederica by the Sloop, Schooner and all the other ſmall Veſſels aforementioned

On the above Information of Capt. Higginbotham, General Oglethorpe laid an Embargo on all the Shipping, excepting only the Wilmington, and was fitting out his two Sloops and Schooner, in order to aſſiſt our Men of War in caſe of Need.

On Friday arrived here his Majeſty's Ship the Roſe, Capt. Thomas Frankland, Commander, with Four Prizes one whereof is the famous Spaniſh Man of War that has done ſo much Miſchief, both before and ſince the preſent War with Spain, as to be known in all Parts of America. Further Particulars (not being yet come to Hand) will be inſerted in our next

We hear, that Capt. Charles Hardy, in his Majeſty's Ship the Rye, (which arriv'd here about the Middle of January laſt, from England) will ſail on a Cruiſe as ſoon as he has got a new Main-Maſt. — Then ſtand clear Ye Spaniſh Privateers,

Extracts of Letters from New-England.

Extract of a Letter, dated February 3, 1741 2

AS to the People who have fell into this new Way, particularly through the whole County of New-London, they do little elſe but attend Day and Night Meetings; in which they exerciſe themſelves in extempore Preachments and Prayers; and inſtead of David's ſing Watts's Hymns; which they alſo chant forth on the Road in great Companies, as they travel from Place to Place. Beſides the few Preachers of liberal Education, illiterate Lay Preachers are greatly multiplied; and theſe of different ſorts, as Independants, Baptiſts, Rogereens, and our old Friend S—— B—— appears alſo among the new Prophets. Theſe Preachers, it's ſaid, refine upon one another; and tho' they all retain their reſpective diſtinctive Principles, yet they agree, in delivering themſelves with ſuch a peculiar Pathos, and Vehemence of Action and Expreſſion, that great Numbers frequently fall down into convulſive Agitations, with their Muſcles amazingly contracted and diſtorted, and this often attended with hideous Howlings, &c. but when the Fit is a little off, the Preſident of the Meeting addreſſes them with peculiar Queſtions; as what did they feel? And the like; and by and by, pronounces them converted.

As every Thing new and unuſual, is accordingly alſo awakening, the Rogereen or Salt-Water Quakers about New-London, (tho' they have not fell fully in with theſe new Lights,) have had great Additions to their Society, by the Immerſion or Baptiſm of Numbers that heretofore ſtood off as only Adherents: The like Additions have been made to other Congregations, in Proportion, as this Spirit has affected the People that belong'd to them. —

Two Men D—— and S——, (having been ſtruck by the Preaching of Mr. D——t, and by him pronounced converted, and endowed with great Power and Facility in ſpeaking in Publick) have ſince own'd themſelves, to have been poſſeſſed with the Devil: D—s has ſince join'd himſelf to what is called the Rogereen Church; and S— during his Diſtraction, had an amazing Agility of Body, evident, by Inſtances, too many and long for a Letter; one thing particular in him, was, that he could bark like a Dog, in his upper and lower Belly, by Turns, without uſing his Organs of Speech. He acted ſtrange Poſtures, but is now recovered, and ſpeaks of this new Way with great Abhorrence.

Extract of a Letter, dated March 15, 1741 2.

THE famous C——ll has been upon promoting the Work among us for above ſix Weeks. His firſt Onſet was on Plymouth, which is become an entire Bedlam. There Preaching, Praying, Singing, in one Place or other, was his conſtant unintermitting Employ. He charmed the whole Town from their ſecular Affairs, and Letters ſay, that not one Stroke of Work was done for three Weeks by Man, Woman or Child. The Fervors and Phrenzies of this Teacher had anſwerable Effects on the Audience; where you might obſerve a general Foaming or Fainting, Laughing or Crying. A big-bellied Woman from an hind Seat ſtraddled into the Pulpit to aſſiſt C——ll, and was inſpired with ſo much uſeful Matter, as took her up half an Hour to deliver it; which ſhe did as vivaciouſly as C——ll, extending her Arms every Way, and not a Muſcle of her Body but in Action. L—d the proper Teacher fell in with the Rant, and gave Thanks, as they ſay, for the Converſion of himſelf and four Children, and deſir'd Prayers for his unconverted Wife. There were about the Town ſinging Proceſſions of Hundreds, the Voices with no Uniformity or ſet Rules, but every one delivering the Tell he was particularly inſpired with, join'd with all the mad Geſtures and Actions that Franticks ſhow, the Rev. Mr. C——ll leading the Van. It ſlip'd my Mind, that L—d bid a Son of his by him, of about Eight Years old, deliver a Word of Exhortation to the People; which he did hoiſted upon a Stool. ——

CHARLES-TOWN, June 9.

This Day a melancholly Accident happened in this Place Mrs. Anne Le Breſſeur, a Widow Gentlewoman of conſiderable Fortune; a prime Diſciple of Mr Whitefield's, and who, ſince his Appearance amongſt us, had ſhifted into a Third Communion, ſhot herſelf with a Piſtol, loaded with a Brace of Balls, through the Body; and expired in an Hour or two after, profeſſing her full Aſſurance of her Salvation, and that ſhe longed to be in the bleſſed Manſions which ſhe knew were prepared for her. She recommended the Care of her Child to the Rev. Mr. Garden

From the BOSTON WEEKLY POST-BOY, April 12, 1742.

By a Letter from Connecticut we are inform'd, that the only Son of a Family there, about 12 Years of Age, having heard frequently the Strangers that go about, was obſerv'd to be very dull for ſome Time, and attempted ſeveral Times to deſtroy himſelf, upon which he was watch'd narrowly; but one Morning when they thought him moſt ſecure, he got out of the Houſe, and threw himſelf into a deep Pond of Water, and there periſh'd: He has a Siſter which is in the ſame Condition from the ſame Cauſe! What will the End of theſe Things be!
